ECBM EUROPEAN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS & MANAGEMENT

Nico Egerer

completed an intensive Professional Development Programme from 25/10/25 – 15/11/25

Doing Business In The Global Environment

This programme covered the following areas:

Project Planning and Presentation Skills
Excursion: Dublin City Tour
Dublin as a World City
Locations for Business
Dublin as a Location for Business
Communications at Work
Management Styles and Team Building
Globalisation
Business Ethics
AI in Business
Irish Economic History and Politics
Sustainable Development Goals
Excursion: Dublin's Docklands
Development of the Modern British Economy
Media in the UK and Ireland
Marketing Communications and Social Media
Excursion: Dublin Customs House
Intercultural Understanding: The Business Environment
Intercultural Understanding: Communication
Excursion: Dublin Regeneration Tour

Assessment	Grade
Oral Presentation	D
Written Examination	D
Written Project	D/D
Overall Assessment	Distinction

Comments: Nico has shown a very good command of the English language and produced an outstanding project.

D = Distinction (hervorragend), M = Merit (gut), P = Pass (bestanden), F = Fail (ungenügend)

[redacted]

Established by the German-British Chamber of Industry and Commerce
69-71 Great Eastern Street London EC2A 3HU
Tel: +44 (0)20 7749 5930
Email: info@ecbm.org.uk - www.ecbm-london.de

AHK

The European College of Business & Management is Committed to Equal Opportunities